IN ROANOKE.
YESTERDAY'S NEWS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.
FROM SHOP AND SIDEWALK.
Sale of Lots--Real Estate Transactions Growing in Magnitude--The Trial of John Trout--Religious Services. Work of the Legislature.

John Marney was fined $2.50 by Mayor Carr yesterday for being drunk and disorderly.

Mr. R. H. T. Thorne sold eight lots on Campbell Avenue Thursday for $2,500.

Capt. J. M. Wingate has contracted with the authorities of Liberty to survey and lay out the streets of the addition now being made to that city.

Real estate transactions are growing in magnitude daily and the faith of investors in the future of the city is unshaken.

On next Sunday J. I. Goodman will conduct services at Lee Street Methodist church at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Workmen began laying the foundations of the addition of Hotel Roanoke yesterday. The work is progressing very rapidly.

Mr. Charles R. Luck, formerly with Penn & Cooke, has accepted a position with Messrs. Gray & Boswell, real estate agents, as stenographer.

The trial of John Trout, charged with making an assault upon Mr. F. H. S. Morrison, on the night of the 10th, will take place in the mayor's court this morning at 9 o'clock.

Mary Thornton and Sarah Read were before Mayor Carr yesterday morning, charged with disturbing the peace and were fined $5 each.

The delegates from the Portsmouth convention will report the proceedings on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Young Men's Christian association rooms. A good attendance is desired.

From now until the middle of June the day's length will increase about as follows: In February one hour and nine minutes, in March one hour and twenty minutes, in April one hour and thirteen minutes, and in June eleven minutes. Then they begin to shorten.

Divine worship will be held at St. Mark's Lutheran church tomorrow morning and evening. It being the first Sunday in Lent, the pastor, Rev. H. Russell, will preach upon "The Temptation of Christ," during the morning service.

Hon. W. P. Dupuy, of the firm of Dupuy & Taliaferro, real estate agents, is in the city. He says the main work done by the legislature this session is an effort to reduce the criminal expenses of the state. The legislature will adjourn about the 5th of March.

A special from Washington, D. C., says: "Representative Edmunds is the one Virginia member to whom the farmers of the state principally apply when they want anything from Washington. His daily budget of letters is very large, and most of them come from farmers. As he is a farmer himself, some of his correspondents seem to think that the most here some connection with the Agricultural Department. It is not uncommon for him to receive letters addressed to the care of the Agricultural Department, and some of them are addressed to him as chief of that department."

THE CRESCENT LAND COMPANY.
Meeting of Stockholders and Election Officers.
At a meeting of the stockholders formed to purchase seventy acres of land of Capt. R. B. Moorman yesterday evening in the office of James S. Simmons & Co., the following officers were elected: Capt. R. B. Moorman, president; Mr. W. P. Moorman, vice-president; Dr. L. G. Pedigo, secretary; Mr. W. H. Thrifty, treasurer; R. Y. B. Smith, Esq., attorney. The following board of directors were elected: Messrs. Jas. S. Simmons, H. M. Darrell, Dr. B. D. Downey, Joseph Lawson, C. A. Wolford, N. P. Ford, W. S. Gooch, R. B. Moorman, and W. P. Moorman. At the suggestion of Mr. James S. Simmons it was unanimously agreed that the name of the new company should be the "Crescent Land Company." The land bought is situated in the rear of the city of Roanoke and near the Melrose addition, and from the rapid manner in which the stock has been taken, it promises to be one of the most popular additions.

New Advertisements.
In today's issue will be found the advertisement of Mr. L. H. Brugh, the successor of R. J. Eckloff, the Jefferson street grocer. He keeps a full stock of everything in the grocery line and from the immense business he is doing it will be seen that his prices must be low.

Read the new advertisement of Joseph Lawson & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, Gale block, and when you want anything in his line, give him a call. He fills orders well and promptly.

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.
They Will be Placed on Sale in the Postoffice Tomorrow.
The new postage stamps will be placed on sale in the postoffice at Washington today. The stamps differ somewhat in form from those in present use, and are about one-eighth smaller in size. The design contains, as the leading feature, the portraits of personages of great eminence in American history. The portraits are in medallion with a heavily shaded background, and set in an ornamental frame containing the words and figures expressive of the object and value of the stamps. The stamps are printed in suitable and attractive colors from engraved steel plates, as follows:

The one-cent stamp contains a profile bust, after Rubrecht, of Benjamin Franklin, printed in ultramarine blue. On the two-cent stamp is a profile bust, after Houdon, of George Washington, looking to the left, on an oval disk, printed in carmine. The three-cent stamp contains a profile bust, after Powers, of Andrew Jackson, on an oval disk, printed in purple. The four-cent stamp contains a portrait of Abraham Lincoln, after a photograph from life, three-quarters face looking to the right; the color is chocolate. On the five-cent stamp is a portrait of General Grant, after a photograph from life, three-quarters face, looking to the right, color light brown.

The six-cent denomination has a portrait of James A. Garfield, after a photograph from life, three-quarters face. The color of this stamp has not been fully determined upon. The ten-cent stamp contains a portrait of Daniel Webster, after a daguerreotype from life, three-quarters face, looking to the left, color light green. The fifteen-cent denomination has a portrait of Henry Clay, after a daguerreotype from life. The color is deep blue. On the thirty-cent stamp is a profile bust of Thomas Jefferson, after Cerrachio; color, black. The fifty-cent denomination contains a profile bust of Commodore O. H. Perry, after Webster's statue. The color is orange.

A CALLED COMMU-
lication of Lakeland lodge No. 190, A. F. and A. M. will be held in their hall this Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Members of sister lodges and visiting brothers cordially invited. By order of the W. M. SAM'L M. WOODWARD, Jr. feb22-1t Secretary.

Almost a Blockade.
From early morning until late in the evening 114 Jefferson street, third door from City Hotel, was blocked with men, women and children. The cause of all this excitement is the "Great Boston Fire Sale of Clothing," selling their stock at 33 1/2 per cent. on the dollar of manufacturers' cost. This is the first time a sale of such extraordinary magnitude has ever taken place in this part of the country and will never occur again. As our time is positively limited for a few days longer, we advise one and all to embrace this opportunity as this is the last chance to secure your clothing at ridiculously low prices, in fact for almost nothing. Here's how they're going:

Sixty-eight cent men's good working pants worth $1.50; 98c. buys better ones, worth $2.50; $1.98 buys strictly all wool pants, worth $4.50. Just think of it, $2.98 takes choice of plaids or stripe men's suits worth very much more; $3.98 buys splendid men's suits made of good wool (all to match) worth $13, ten styles; $4.98 for good business cheviot suits, splendid quality worth $14; $7.29 for extra fine dress suits, cost manufacturer $18; $8.98 for special quality satin-faced black prince-albert dress suit and fine black cheviot, worth $24, just think of it. $3.00 takes elegant Kersey men's overcoats, all colors, worth $10; $4.95 fine worumba beaver overcoats, blue, black or brown, heavy cloth and guaranteed worth $14 $9.19 fine wide wale worsted overcoats for dress, satin facing, and actually worth $15. Just think of it. Here you'll see 300 splendid children's suits at 98c. (all ages), and 500 stylish plaid suits will go for $1.39, but really worth $3.50, and 100 boys' long pants suits for $2.98, with 1,000 pairs knee pants at 11c. per pair, and many such bargains. feb23-tf

A Matter of Great Importance.
The managers of the "Great Boston Fire Sale of Clothing" wish to inform the public at large that they were instructed by the "Board of Underwriters" to keep in reserve certain large lots of Prince Albert dress suits and other fine suits, also comprising a large line of children's suits until the stock was somewhat reduced, as the space in this mammoth building was entirely too small to display them properly, so today we will open the above lots so that those who were disappointed in the great rush of Wednesday and Thursday may be supplied. "Great Boston Fire Sale of Clothing," 114 Jefferson street, three doors from City Hotel. feb22-1t

To the Public.
In view of the fact that the charges which have heretofore been made by the practicing physicians of Roanoke have been lower than the customary charges elsewhere in cities of like size, and of the physicians of Roanoke deem it proper and just that the proposed schedule should prevail here in justice to ourselves, and no imposition upon our patrons, especially as the proposed charges are still below those in many other towns of the state. The city of Roanoke has become to such an extent a city of "magnificent distances," that it involves more expense and time than formerly to attend its inhabitants; all therefore have mutually agreed to adhere to the following tariff of fees, and as all have subscribed their names thereto, it will be regarded a breach of faith and unprofessional conduct to violate the same, and it will be so regarded by all other physicians.

The following is the list of charges to go into effect from February the 20th, 1890
For day visit in corporate limits $1.50.
For night visit after 9 p. m. $3.00
For prescription at office $1.00.
For day consultation $5.00.
For night consultation $5.00 to $10.
For an ordinary case of midwifery $15.00.
Special practice and surgery to be charged according to services rendered.
